PERIOD: 1-2-52, Juneau, Alaska.

Douglas Swanson, Assistant Chief Law Enforcement Officer, U.S.

Fish & Wildlife Service, Juneau, Alaska made available a 1951 Application for a Resident Hunting & Fishing License submitted by Charles Madsen reflecting Madsen was naturalized at Nome, Alaska on December 21, 1910. The following description of Madsen was obtained from the above license application:

Age	66 (in 1951)
Height	5-9
Weight	200
Complexion	Fair
Eyes	Blue
Hair	Gray
Residence	Kodiak, Alaska.

Swanson also stated that for years Madsen has been employed as a hunting guide in the vicinity of Kodiak, Alaska and made available a "Report on Game Conditions on the Alaskan Peninsula" written by Madsen in 1916.

Swanson also made available a complaint received from & H. Lemmons, President, Salad Master Sales, Inc., Dallas, Texas by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service stating that ~~Mrs~~ Madsen was overbearing and authoritative when conducting hunting parties aboard his vessels. Lemmons wrote the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service that immediately prior to his letter of complaint, Lemmons had paid Madsen $4,000.00 for a hunting trip. An investigation conducted by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Officers into Madsen's conduct on his trip with Lemmons exonerated Madsen from any wrongdoing that Lemmons was on the verge of a nervous break down.

Swanson also made available a complaint regarding Madsen received from Ira J. Wiley, Dayton, Ohio which set forth that Wiley contracted to go on a hunting trip with Madsen from April 10 to April 23, 1949 and deposited $500.00 with Madsen. Wiley then cancelled his trip and Madsen refused to return the $500.00 but offered Wiley ~~to exchange his trip~~ to apply the $500.00 to a hunting trip at a time more suitable for Wiley. An investigation by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Officers at Kodiak, Alaska disclosed that Madsen refused to return Wiley's deposit only after it became impossible for Madsen to fill the hunting period previously contracted for by Wiley.

Swanson made the above information available to the Writer on a confidential basis and [REDACTED] was not disclosed.

Re: Charles Madsen, Kodiak, Alaska
Escape and Evasion Program

Dear

A review of 1951 application for resident hunting and fishing license submitted by Charles Madsen at the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Juneau, Alaska, reflected that Madsen was naturalized at Nome, Alaska, on December 21, 1910.

The following description of Madsen was obtained from the above license application:

Age - 66 years in 1951
Height - 5 feet 9 inches
Weight - 200 lbs.
Complexion - Fair
Eyes - Blue
Hair - Grey

The records also reflect a complaint received from J. H. Lemmons, President, Salad Master Sales, Inc., Dallas, Texas, stating that Madsen was over-bearing and authoritative when conducting hunting parties aboard his vessel. Lemmons wrote that immediately prior to his letter of complaint he had paid Madsen $4,000 for a hunting trip. An investigation conducted by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service officers into Madsen's conduct on his trip with Lemmons exonerated Madsen from any wrongdoing and pointed out that Lemmons was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

The records further reflected a complaint regarding Madsen received from Ira J. Wiley, Dayton, Ohio, which set forth that Wiley contracted to go on a hunting trip with Madsen from April 10 through 23, 1949, and deposited $500 with Madsen. Wiley then cancelled his trip and Madsen refused to return the $500 but offered to apply the $500 to a hunting trip at a time more suitable for Wiley. An Investigation by the Fish and Wildlife Service at Kodiak disclosed that Madsen refused to return Wiley's deposit only when it became impossible for Madsen to fill the hunting period previously contracted for by Wiley. The records reflected no additional information on Madsen.

It should be noted that the above information was furnished on a confidential basis and the source of this information should not be disclosed.

The files of this office reflect that two Russian produced motion pictures, one a fantasy entitled "Rockflower" and the other, a Russian historical film, were displayed in the Orpheum Theatre in Kodiak, Alaska, in 1947. These pictures were secured by Mr. James Martz who was manager of the Orpheum Theatre as the result of his having talked with Mr. Charles Madsen who had just returned to Kodiak from a visit in the States. Mr. Madsen saw both of the films while he was in the States and suggested to Mr. Martz that inasmuch as most of the native population of Kodiak spoke the Russian language, he thought it would be a good idea if Mr. Martz could obtain them for showing in Alaska.

It was reported that Mr. Madsen had gone to the trouble of obtaining the names and address of the firm in New York who were acting as distributors for these Russian films and that he had turned this information over to Mr. Martz. No further information in regard to these pictures is contained in the files of this office.
